02 Dexter Curtin & Timo Manson
Bang That Box Remix

We proudly present the debut release of Carlo Astuti on Audiodevot.

The Los Angeles based artist emphasizes his eclectic sound style and continues his musical output on our label with this must-have track. So he comes along with a huge, dark techno track stuffed with a cheeky bass groove so deep to get under your skin. Deep, dark progressive atmosphere, as known from former times, coming back through the catchy vocals combined with eclectic tribal sounds.

Just a must-have for progressive lovers.

The Single also includes a remix of the upcoming DJ and Production Duo Dexter Curtin & Timo Manson, who re-demonstrate their skills as really good remixers with the “Bang That Box Remix”. A title that keeps its promise.
